Initiation and Installation of Officers

May 3, 2014,
11A.M.

Terry Klein led the Installation ceremony. Melody Hannegan, President; Paulette Hemmings, First Vice President; Faith Jack, 2nd Vice President; Peg Maser, Corresponding Secretary; Karen Ulrich, Recording Secretary; and Margaret Foster, Treasurer are the officers for the 2014-2016 biennium.

For the Initiation ceremony, Barbara MacDonald, Peg Maser, Faith Jack, and Karen Klingman, and Terry Klein, Parliamentarian, took part. Barbara Schmid was the sponsor for candidate Dede Rittman.

We sang the Delta Kappa Gamma song. Barbara Lanza was the greeter. Ellen Rodwick gave the inspiration on Hope. Ruth Wilson and Nancy Penney provided the raffle basket of flowers to plant.

The minutes as printed in the newsletter were approved as printed.

Peg Maser read a thank you from Room to Read for our $170.90 donation.

Barb Schmid read the Treasurer's Report in Marg Foster's absence. Balance is $3207.91.

Joanna Weber, the Grant-in-Aid Recipient, was unable to attend due to her graduation ceremony. Terry Klein told us a bit more about her.

Ellen Rodwick reported on the Jared Boxes and Projects and will pass on resources to next chair.

Under Unfinished Business, the Attendance Award name pulled was Melissa Costantino.

Barb MacDonald gave out gifts to her officers, and Melody presented a gift from the chapter to Barbara for her two biennia term. She also thanked people for bringing in items for the State raffle basket.

We saw the chair for the Head Start project that was purchased by Dede Rittman and painted by Deb McMullen to go with the book Pete the Cat: I Love My White Shoes.

Melody Hannegan reported that the Standing Rules were adopted by a 30-0 vote.

Melody asked members to sign up for committees for her term.

In Joys and Concerns, Phyllis Jenny had a knee replacement, Barb Schmid is retiring, Dede Rittman is having two books printed.

Roses were given to new member and officers.

Lunch was served, and we were entertained by Deb Stackrow on the harp. Paulette Hemmings won the raffle basket.

Respectfully submitted,

Karen Ulrich
